

Caverion Austria acquires Lepusnitz Kältetechnik GmbH

Press release
30 June 2025

Caverion Austria has acquired Austrian Lepusnitz Kältetechnik GmbH, with 18 employees and annual revenue of approximately EUR 4.2 million.

Lepusnitz Kältetechnik GmbH ("Lepusnitz Kältetechnik"), headquartered in Wernberg in the center of the Carinthia province in Austria, was founded in the 1970s and was owned at the time of the sale by Equans Kältetechnik GmbH, Austria. Lepusnitz Kältetechnik is active in supermarket refrigeration as well as commercial cooling and air conditioning. The range of services extends from the planning and installation of new systems to the optimization and servicing of existing systems, including a 24/7 emergency service throughout Carinthia and East Tyrol.

Through partnerships with international manufacturers of refrigeration equipment, Lepusnitz Kältetechnik serves international customers in the Carinthia region (REWE, Lidl, M-Preis). In addition, services are provided to several regional customers within the hospitality sector and public contractors.

"Through this acquisition, we further strengthen our position within the cooling and refrigeration-segment, which is one of our key growth areas. We are therefore very pleased with this acquisition and would like to warmly welcome both customers and employees to the Caverion team", says Manfred Simmet, EVP and CEO, Caverion Austria.
